TORONTO, Oct. 26.—(Special Telegram.)—The Canadian Press Association, which met in Toronto today, recalled the press parley which took place at the annual conference of press editors held in Toronto last August, when he was the official Canadian delegate.

The Carrel made a moving appeal on behalf of the League of Nations, which he described as carrying on modestly a work of immeasurable benefit to the world, for if peace were to be assured, it would be due to the international understanding and interchange of view brought about by the league.

Interest Important
Creating upon the press the importance of taking a deep interest in the present League of Nations work of the world press conference, the Carrel said that the work of the subjects must move forward in the future.

He said that in the future, the press must have one world conference to settle in the near future, and the supply of news will be one of them. In this regard, we will be more than benefited by having the assistance and cooperation of such a powerful body.

ELIMINATE THE "JOG"

The city officials are discussing with the National officials the matter of running a street railway line along 104th avenue from 92nd street to the new depot. It will be for the purpose of eliminating the "jog" in the route. The "jog" is an arrangement can be made to straighten 104th avenue from 92nd street through to 101st street. It will be a very important improvement if it cannot be done. There is a "jog" at the corner of 104th avenue and 92nd street which will make that corner another place where traffic develops unless it is eliminated, and the best time to eliminate it is the present.

IS THE U. S. AT WAR?

United States troops fought a pitched battle with the Liberal party in Nicaragua, otherwise known as the rebels. The casualties in the engagement ran up to 21, four of them among the marines. The fight started when a rebel expedition was attacked by the rebels while searching for a couple of air scouts who had disappeared and were probably murdered or captured by the insurgents.

This is not the first time the U. S. troops have had since they were landed in Nicaragua for the protection of foreign lives and property. Their experiences there should do something to modify the views of those U. S. newspapers which say that the U. S. is a fairly large British empire in China the sign of an intention to make war upon that country. The real difference seems to have been that Britain sent to China a force large enough to discourage attack, while the United States sent enough troops to Nicaragua to invite attack.

THE WESTERN 'SPOUT'

M. H. W. Wood stated in Vancouver that more wheat will go westward this year than would that year last season. He said a warning of the coming of the year to derive ourselves or ourselves that our grain this year is of first quality. Owing to adverse weather conditions at harvest time, a good deal of it has to be sold in the lower grades. It is bulk, rather than quality, that is giving unusual value this year to the wheat crop of Alberta, and of the entire West.

It is fortunate for Alberta, in conditions like the present, that we have a western outlet. There is a limit to the rate at which grain can be moved to the east through the head of the lakes, even when the grain is uniformly high grade. With an enormous effort to handle much of it requiring treatment in hospital elevators, and shipping prospects would not be very bright for the Alberta farmers just now if they had to ship to Fort William or not at all. It could hardly be in that case except that there is a large amount of weather-damaged grain would be left in the Alberta country elevators and farmers' granaries, and the latter would be with the western outlet open continuously, and drying facilities at Edmonton and Vancouver, the Alberta crop can be moved out as freely as that of Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

A SOUND POLICY

Edmonton people welcome the announcement by the Board of Education that he plans to erect a normal school building in the city next year. That means that the Edmonton normal school, which has been in existence for many years, and that another is to be added to the educational institutions already established here; that another imposing building will be added to the schools of which the city is deservedly proud; that every year a large number of young men and women will come here to reside, who will go on to some other centre, and that Edmonton boys and girls will be able to qualify for teaching without having to spend the better part of a year at a distant school, with the extra expense that involves.

Not all the benefits will accrue to Edmonton. The educational system of the province will gain through the establishment of a training school where a large number of prospective teachers are to be found. There is little doubt that more Edmonton boys and girls will take the normal course and enter the teaching profession because they will be able to do so while living at home. There are financial reasons why that is so. And it is from the ranks of these students who have to consider the matter of expense that the most proficient teachers are likely to be drawn. That is the class of pupils who normally work harder, and turn out better in any profession. From the standpoint of the school system of the province it was a mistake to close the Edmonton normal a few years ago, and the Minister is pursuing a sound policy in proposing to re-establish it as a permanent institution.

The Boy and the Boss

By EDGAR E. GUEST

If you will work, the boss will smile

And rush to make it worth your while.

If you will think, the boss will grin

And smooth the way for you to win.

For every boss that I have known

Has loved his workers as his own.

And nothing grieves him so much

As one who has the master touch.

It is the profit, not the loss

That wins the friendship of the boss.

Only a foolish boss would deem

The best man, in his store or shop.

So if he talks at what you do,

The fault's not with the boss, but you.

You say he's treating all the while

His better workmen with his smile?

La Barba

There is a young man going to school at Stanford University who is quite remarkable in many ways.

This young man seems to have passed the first test of life. There is no doubt in his mind that he will be a success in his career.

The most important thing in one's career is the character of the work one does.

It is the character of the work one does that determines the character of the man.

The student who is not content with the work he is doing, but who is always looking for a better way to do it, is the one who will be a success in his career.

There is also a severe form, which is caused directly or indirectly by decayed teeth or infected gums, and a healthy body is dependent on a very great extent on a healthy mouth.
